

Here's Why You're Special To Me and the World

I am granting you a gift not many people receive. I am not offering something you can touch, but something you can be touched by. I am sending you a reminder of one very special thing, one that may be the secret of living. I'd like to share this thought with you...because you're a beautiful combination of things that make you YOU - the one I treasure.

Think of all the people who live or ever lived on our planet since the very beginning of time.

None of them are like you.

What a miraculous thing it is to be you!

Nobody has the same combination of talents, abilities, sorrows and opportunities.

No one has the same friends, the same family jokes or the same acquaintances.

Nobody's finger prints are the same.

No one has the same concerns or goals as you.

No one! You are unique.

Accept and enjoy this uniqueness. You don't have to pretend to look more like others expect you to be. Don't be afraid to be different.

No one in the world has the same things going on in their mind, soul or spirit as you have going on in yours.

It is a gift only to you.

Treasure and share your uniqueness.

Nobody can speak your words.

Nobody can smile your smile.

No one can leave the same impact on another person as you do.

Enjoy how unique you truly are,
let it flow out and touch your family and friends,
and all the people you meet.

Give yourself away and be inspired by the fact that you are UNIQUE.

And don't you ever try to change that.

Because you're perfect that way,
and people will value you because you are YOU.

I'm one of those people
